

Overland Storage Expands Support for LTO-5 Across Its Award-Winning NEO Series of Automated Backup and Archive Solutions

April 21, 2010

LTO-5 Technology Doubles Storage Capacity of NEO S Product Line

LONDON, Apr 21, 2010 (BUSINESS WIRE) --Overland Storage (NASDAQ:OVRL), the trusted global provider of effortless data management and data protection solutions across the data lifecycle, today announced expanded support for LTO-5 technology across its entire line of NEO Series products with the introduction of LTO-5-compatible NEO S Series automated backup and archive solutions. The NEO S Series is designed to take the complexity out of backup and disaster recovery for small office and departmental infrastructures, featuring simplified backup management, storage capacity up to 76TB and support for disk-based backup.

Leading the introduction of LTO-5, Overland was the first vendor in the storage industry to announce LTO-5 availability with the February 2010 launch of LTO-5 in the NEO E Series. With the addition of LTO-5 to the NEO S line, Overland has extended its leadership position and enables businesses to leverage a range of backup and archive solutions within a single product line.

Benefits of Overland NEO S LTO-5 Automated Backup and Archive Solutions

- Over 76TB of storage capacity - provides the maximum amount of data storage capability while utilising the minimum amount of valuable data center space
- Investment protection enables users to grow into their storage with minimal investment - features partitioning, encryption key management and dual-module scalability .
- Effortless management capabilities - Offers the convenience to monitor and manage the backup and archive process from anywhere in the world

NEO S Series Upgrade and Save Program

Overland has also extended its NEO Upgrade and Save Cash-Back Program to include the NEO S Series, providing attractive incentives to upgrade to LTO-5 configurations.
