

Sphere 3D signs Definitive Agreement with Corel Corporation to become a Value Added Reseller & Distributor

May 28, 2013 11:32 AM ET

Mississauga, ONTARIO, May 28, 2013, – Sphere 3D Corporation (TSX-V:ANY) (“Sphere 3D” or the “Company”), developer of Glassware 2.0™ foundational thin client technology, is pleased to announce that it has signed a definitive agreement with Corel Corporation (“Corel”) to act as Value Added Reseller and Distributor for Corel® Office and Corel® PDF Fusion™. Under the terms of the agreement, Sphere 3D will electronically distribute these award winning office productivity software titles to end users in one of 3 formats: a standard desktop version; a Virtual Desktop Instance (VDI); or mobile software versions powered by Sphere 3D’s Software Virtualization solution, Glassware 2.0™.

“This Value Added Reseller & Distributor Agreement with a globally recognized, award winning, software brand, is an important milestone in our plan to commercialize and promote adoption of Sphere 3D’s cloud based virtualization technology” stated Peter Tassiopoulos, CEO of Sphere 3D. “Our agreement gives us the ability to deliver Corel’s award winning productivity software both directly and virtually whether on a desktop, tablet and/or a smartphone. We are excited to work with an innovative brand like Corel.”

Nick Davies, EVP & GM Graphics, Digital Media & Productivity Software at Corel commented, “We’re always looking for new ways to provide more flexibility and options to our users when purchasing and using Corel software. Working with Sphere 3D has opened up new possibilities to deliver Corel Office and PDF Fusion to users on devices other than the desktop. We’re looking forward to working further with the Sphere 3D team and expanding the different ways our users can access their productivity software.”
